Subject K. M. STEINER - Applicant for Certificate of Character.

Made by D. S. Pitts. Forwarded by

Kurt M. STEINER, holder of a provisional Czecho-slovakian passport in which he is described as "without nationality," was born in Saxony on September 16, 1912 of an Austrian father. After the Great War, applicant's family removed to that territory now known as Sudetenland, recently annexed by the German Reich.

Steiner has Jewish blood in his veins and since the promulgation of the anti-Semitic measures by Hitler, he has no desire to assume German nationality which, prior to the introduction of these measures, he could have done with no difficulty.

He has been engaged in Shanghai and Nanking for several years in commercial enterprises, but recently has been following the calling of a journalist and is at present employed with Messrs. North-China Daily News & Herald, Ltd. as a reporter.

Nothing is on record in the Municipal Police to the applicant's detriment from a criminal, moral or political point of view. He resided in Shanghai from 1923 until 1930 and from 1932 until the present with short breaks in various European countries.

Made by D.S. Pike. Forwarded by

25-8-37

In reference to the instructions of the Officer i/c Special Branch on the subject of one Kurt . Steiner, I have to report that nothing is known to the Shanghai Municipal Police to this gentleman's detriment.

Mr. Steiner is a young man of Czecho-Slovakian nationality who was born in Germany of an Austrian father about 31 years ago. After the war in 1918, the part of Austria in which he and his family were then residing changed hands and became Czecho-Slovakian territory. The Steiner family came to Shanghai some years ago and Kurt Steiner received several years schooling at the Shanghai American School on Avenue Petain. His father, A.F. Steiner, now deceased, organized the firm of Steiner & Co., manufacturers' representatives, in Kiukiang Road and until recently, Kurt Steiner was employed by one of the company.

About three or four months ago he married a Russian lady according to Chinese law, after which he proceeded to Hankow and commenced business on his own trading under the name Kurt . Steiner & Co.

He is looked upon as a very likeable individual and he moves freely among German circles, and the reason that he has applied to be allowed to become a naturalised German, it is said, is because he is a German at heart and feels more at home among things German.

REPORT

Date May 9, 1934.

Subject (in full) Solomon Schiffmann alias Solomon Jager.

Made by F.S. Ivanoff Forwarded by J Bahr S.

With reference to the memo of the Officer i/c Special Branch dated May 9, 1934, on the subject of one Solomon Schiffmann residing at No. 4 Studley Avenue, enquiries regarding the antecedents and character of this individual reveal the following information:-

Solomon Schiffmann, Austrian Jew, was born in November 1891, at Drohybyez, Galicia. In 1914, at the outbreak of the Great War, Solomon Schiffmann, an Austrian citizen was mobilized and sent to the Russian front with one of the Austrian Infantry Regiments. Some time during the latter part of September, 1914, he was wounded and taken prisoner of war by the Russians and consequently sent to Spassk, a small provincial town in the Lariusse District. In 1920 he was freed from the war prisoners camp and proceeded to Vladivostock where he managed to obtain employment with a certain American shipping firm as a clerk, in which capacity he worked until 1923 when he left for Shanghai. Upon his arrival in Shanghai he was employed with the Kaison Arcus as a bookkeeper for a period of two years and later joined the firm of S. Bohr & Matthew, Ltd., where he is still employed.

It appears, that as a result of the Great War, the town of Drohybyaz as well as a large portion of Austrian Galicia was alloted to Poland, thus all people residing there automatically became Polish subjects and were issued with Polish passports. The Polish passport in Solomon Schiffmann's possession was issued to him in 1920 in Vladivostock upon his release from the war prisoners camp and since that time has been renewed in 1923 in Harbin.

Nothing detrimental is known by this office regarding this individual.

Subject Application from Attorney Ivanow for Certificate of Good Character in respect of client named Y... Pass.

Made by D.S. Jones Forwarded by JB Cox 29/3/35

With reference to the application dated March 20, 1935 from Mr. Ivanow, Attorney and Counsellor-at-Law, that the Shanghai Municipal Police grant a certificate to his client, Yakov Mihailovitch Pass, showing that the latter is a person of good character, reputation etc, I have to state that there is no record of his ever having been prosecuted by the authorities of the International Settlement for any punishable offence against the law while living in Shanghai.

As to his being a person of good character and reputation, this is quite another matter and it is debatable whether he is the type of settler required by New Zealand.

Yakov Mihailovitch Pass is a Jew and has two brothers named Samuel and George. The last named is reported to have returned recently to Shanghai from Soviet Russia. A rumour is current that a few years ago the three brothers, who were then running a hairdressing establishment in Hankow, were arrested and detained by the Police on suspicion of being concerned in a larceny. The circumstance surrounding their alleged arrest and detention are not very clear, but it is reported that on being released they immediately cleared out of ~~Shanghai~~ HANKOW.

Mention is made of the brother Samuel in file No.D.2610. From information contained in this file it appears that between September 15 and September 29, 1931 he obtained by false pretences various sums of money totalling $240.00 from two women, owners of a "Beauty Parlour" in Mukden. After obtaining the money Samuel decamped and was believed to have come to Shanghai, although he could not be located at the time. This same individual was arrested in the French Concession, Shanghai on February 7, 1934 for unlawful entry and causing material

Mr. Yakov Mikhailovich T a s s a , a Russian emigrant whom I know many years applied to me with the request to assist him in receiving from the Shanghai Municipal Police the certificate that he is a person of good character and reputation and has no records in the Police. Such certificate is necessary for Mr. Tass as he intends to go to New Zealand and according to the clause 18 of the application for a permit to enter New Zealand he must support the above statement by a certificate from a police officer. Mr. Tass came to Shanghai in 1926 and had here a Beauty Parlour at No 859 North Szechuen Road as his profession is a lady hair-dresser. During the last Japanese-Chinese trouble at Shanghai in 1932 Mr. Tass joined Shanghai Volunteer Corps and worked in the Transport Section. Shanghai Municipal Police,
Shanghai.

Dear Sir:-

I am in receipt of a letter from Miss Sonia Subrovo of Tientsin, China, requesting me to obtain from your office a copy of Police Report concerning her sister Miss Luba Subrovo, who formerly resided here in Shanghai and operated a dress-making business on Bubbling Well Road - the exact address is not in my possession.

It seems that Miss Luba Subrovo left Shanghai some three months ago for Johannesburg, South Africa, which is a British possession. Miss Luba Subrovo is a Russian immigrant subject to the jurisdiction of the Chinese Government. It is necessary at this time that she renew her visa and that whatever information as to her character is on file here in Shanghai be sent to the Chief of Police at Johannesburg. I am informed that your office was to mail this information direct by air mail some three weeks ago. If this information has not been mailed to Johannesburg, would you be kind enough to take care of the matter immediately?

Thanking you, I am,

Very truly yours,

Felthan Watson

Made by D.S. Sansom Forwarded by D.I.I. Office

With reference to the application dated March 20, 1936, from Dr. Edward J.A.H. Rudolph to the Shanghai Municipal Police, requesting that he be given a certificate of good conduct covering the period of his residence in Shanghai, I have to state that there is nothing in the records of the Shanghai Municipal Police prejudicial to this gentleman's character.

Dr. Rudolph, a chemist, of German nationality, arrived in Shanghai on December 24, 1932, having come direct from Germany on contract with the Elektrochemische Werke Munch A.C., a firm which is affiliated to Melchers & Co. He remained in Shanghai until November 14, 1934, when he sailed direct for Germany aboard the s.s. "Oder", having resigned from the firm on his own account. Throughout his stay in Shanghai he resided at 100 Tifeng Road and at 591/102 Bubbling Well Road.

Dr. Rudolph belongs to a wealthy and respectable family, and his conduct in Shanghai was above reproach.

REPORT No. Date December 10, 1936.

Subject Eliazar Moiseyevitch SAMSONOVICH; communication from the Russian Emigrants' Committee.

Made by D.P.S. Henchman Forwarded by J Bogue A I I

With reference to the attached communication I have to state that E.M. Samsonovich, Russian Jew, born at Verhneudinsk, on 17th August 1901, came to China with his wife, Ada Samsonovich, in May, 1925. By profession he is a textile engineer. He is registered at the offices of the Russian Emigrants' Committee and although this organisation has no record of anything detrimental to his character, he is well known to Police in Shanghai. On 28th March, 1934 he was convicted on charges of fraud and issuing worthless cheques and was sentenced by the 2nd Shanghai Special District Court to a fine of $40 or twenty days' imprisonment; on 31st December 1935 he was charged with forgery but was acquitted by the 2nd Shanghai Special District Court.

Since his arrival in China Samsonovich has visited Hankow and Tientsin in which places he carried on business as a merchant. In Shanghai, in 1930, he operated the Far Eastern Loan and Finance Co. at 22 Nanking Road and when that business failed he found employment as an expert embroiderer, first at Messrs. Elabroideries, then at Patten Mackenzie & Co. and finally at Master & Co. While in Shanghai Samsonovich has resided at various addresses both in the French Concession and in the International Settlement, his present address is 160 Hungjao Road.

It should be noted that E. M. Samsonovich is the son of Moses E. Samsonovich who was engaged in arms and drug traffic while in Shanghai and who was arrested in Hongkong in January 1925 for being in possession of morphia. Moses Samsonovich has been in Brazil since 1930.
